10/8/71

Dear Larry,

In connection with what I told, showed and let you hear about some the operations of the CIA, theoretically illegal, you may be interested in the article beginning on p. 78 of the U.S.News and World Report dated 10/11/71.

Because Marchetti rose up to the planning staff, I think it takes his apprehensions more credible, and I suggest that because of the oath he took he falls short of saying what he otherwise might say but daren't.

Since you were here my wife has completed the typing of the final part of Post Mortem. This means we have uncorrected copies of all three parts right now. All that is missing is a small section I will add to the end of the second part, not essential for what I suggested to you, and the overall introduction and conclusions. Parts of these are written. I am delaying them until I complete posting the corrections and have had a chance to receive suggestions from friends.

The suppressed interview quotes Colby at his press meeting [illegible] personally. Colby did beg, "trust me". But as I read it, while making no reference at all to the earlier doings, about which I saw no single editorial comment, he also pleaded that they do not be engaged in domestic intelligence operations. It is the disproof of this I have proof. As you know.

Another feature is Marchetti's lack of realization that a check of the to-now classified intelligence was (also illegally) conducted by others and available free under the agreement with Johnson. It was earlier, without the agreement, for I was part of it.

Best regards,

Harold Weisberg
